LXV WINE AWARDED 'BEST OF CLASS'
AT PREMIERE 2014 SAN FRANCISCO WINE COMPETITION

LXV Wines' 2012 Summer Satine (100% Viognier) was awarded 'Best of Class' at the 2014 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition earlier this month.

Picked at peak ripeness with bright natural acidity, then barrel fermented for texture, Summer Satine has an incredibly long, full mouth with a balanced, apricot-like finish and a hint of juicy melon.

Held in Sonoma County, the San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition is the largest competition of American wines in the world. This year, the competition hosted a record number of approximately 5,825 entries, from more than 1500 wineries from 25 different states. Evaluating the entries was a panel of judges comprised of 55 winemaking, retail and media related wine experts, restaurant and hospitality industry professionals.

LXV Wine is proud to have the highly awarded 2012 Summer Satine (100% Viognier) featured as one of the Award Winning Wines at the public tasting on February 15th at Fort Mason Center Pavilion in San Francisco.

Other accolades for 2012 Summer Satine:

Gold Medal - 2013 International Sommelier Challenge

Silver Medal - 2013 International Wine Channel TV Awards
